About: The High Line Open Studios provides a rare opportunity for the art lovers, collectors, dealers, and tourists to meet our local contemporary artists who keep this historic art neighborhood vibrant. Artists will be on-hand to show their most recent artworks and discuss their artistic practice. While typically only accessible by appointment, visitors will be granted access “behind the scenes” to explore each artist’s creative space. Artworks will be available in a wide range of media including — but not limited to— painting, sculpture, photography, mixed-media, textiles, prints, collage, street art, and much more!

The intimate setting gives collectors and dealers the rare opportunity preview and purchase artworks directly from the artists’ inventory without the gallery markup. It’s also a fantastic way to discover new emerging talent and discover the next art star.

We anticipate a fantastic turnout for our highly anticipated weekend event conjunction with the Armory Show at the Javits Center, September 8-10, 2023, 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. Please join us to meet the artists of West Chelsea and support New York City’s artists, art, and culture.

The High Line Open Studios is organized and presented by West Chelsea artist, Scotto Mycklebust, artist/executive producer, and the Public Art Squad Project.
